

From:

Joseph Harmon, M.P.

General Secretary,

APNU

It has been an honour and a privilege to serve this Country as General Secretary of A Partnership for National Unity .

As 2014 comes to an end, I want to thank you for your support of the Partnership to assure you that in the days and months ahead APNU will continue to serve you; putting your interest, the interest of people first. So as we take time out from politics and the rigours of daily life to celebrate the yuletide joy, let us come together as a community remembering the true reason for the season.

In offering my best wishes to you and your loved ones, I want to ask, that amidst the merriment and traditional expressions of the Christmas spirit, you honour the values of kindness and sharing not only your loved ones, but with those who are less fortunate. I want to ask that we all recommit ourselves to standing side by side with our brother and sisters in this great mission to rebuild our Dear land of Guyana after we see the end of a PPP regime which has destroyed this beautiful country over the last twenty two (22) years.

I trust that with your continued prayers and support, we will be able to overcome the fresh challenges which we will face in 2015.

Best Wishes for CHRISTMAS & the New Year!

Joseph Harmon, M.P.
General Secretary, APNU
